Smokeball Johnson Proves Too Much for League Leaders

Speed Demon Gets Sweet Re- TWO SPECIAL TRAINS venge by Holding Pacemakers Safe Before Big Crowd.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 21.—On again, gone again, lost again.
Cleveland's Indians, playing before a record-breaking crowd, dropped their first Sunday game of the year today, Walter Johnson leading the Nationals to a +to-s win over the pace-setters and cutting down their margin to half a contest. The decision was in doubt up to the minth, and then Johnson started to set-the it in his club's favor by smiting a mighty double to left. He scored later when Clyde Milan pushed a single through the drawn-in infield.

Bagby, for the first time in weeks, proved a nonrescuer. He pitched only Indians, in an effort to maintain Sunday percentage of 1,000, made of their noted eighth-inning rallies and gathered three runs off the best pitcher in the American League, Terry Turner, who was a fielding hero as well as a timely hitter, driving in Cleveland's last pair of markers. The Dunnmen's pioneer counter was hammered home by Bob Roth, who was doing a pinch-hitting trick for Coveleskie.

In Pitching Duel.

Stanley and Walter had a tight pitching battle for seven spasms, Washing-ton's first run being due to the over-eagerness of Bill Wamby to start a double play. Ivan Howard also was overambitious in the ninth. However, he tribe got into the game and the scorng column through a blunder by Mor-can and Washington, with all the errors, probably would have won anyway.

The way the Indians tied it up in the sighth was this: Howard was hit, Wamby fanned, Morgan messed up O'Neill's grounder, Roth doubled, Graney fanned. Turner singled and Speaker was thrown Dut, Judge to Johnson.

The Nationals could not drive the ball but of the infield when they renewed acquaintance with the cursedly cool Covaleskie. Turner made a wonderful stop on his infield rival, else the sphere would have roamed to the suburbs. Johnson passed through the opener safely and Henri Rondeau, the Frenchman from Joe Cantillon's Minneapolis Irishman Joe Cantillon's Minneapolis club, walked, leading the second, and Judge tried the hit and run with him. Joe put up a tall fly, which Wamby inhaled, Shanks singled, and Coveleskie fanned the next pair. Johnson duplicated his work of the kick-off period.

Just as in the second Coveleskie walked the first man in the third. This man was the first man in the third. This man was the second coveleskie walked the first man in the third. This man was the second coveleskie walked the first man in the third. This man was the second covered to the
